

W. P. WALTON.

The Springfield Republican says: "The republicans must give it up. Grover Cleveland is elected the next President of the United States and will be inaugurated on the 4th of March next. The candidate and campaign of falsehood fall together in mutual ruin. The grand old party—we use the words in no satiric sense—which has governed the country for twenty four years, saving the Union, freeing the slave and retrieving financial disaster, goes down, not in honor and honorable defeat, but in disgrace and behind a corrupt, venal and shifty leader. It fell when it nominated Blaine and before a vote had been cast. When it ran up his name to the mast head it insulted the honesty and decency of the country; it mistook the whoop of the Chicago mob for the honest convictions and the sober character of the people of the United States. By the same act it both necessitated and it defied revolution—and revolution has come."

The St. Louis Globe Democrat, which is not a democratic paper by any means, says of the candidate it worked so hard to elect: "He proved a deadhead in the enterprise of carrying the country." "For President in 1888—Some Man Who Hasn't Written Any Letters." "Mr. Blaine should have burned those letters himself, instead of asking another fellow to do it." "The trouble began by Blaine's designation of Conkling as a turkey gobbler twenty years ago. We presume the returns mean that Conkling is not a turkey gobbler." "We believe it was Martin Van Buren who said he would rather walk twenty miles than write a letter. If Mr. Blaine had taken more walks and written fewer letters he might have been elected." "In re 'Tell the Truth' vs. 'Burn this Letter,' verdict for plaintiff."

It seems that the good news that we were to have a solid democratic representation in Congress from this State, was not altogether true. Wadsworth, republican, is said to have defeated Powers in the 9th by 102 votes. The other ten are all dyed in the wool democrats, who submit always to the manners and customs of their party. W. P. Taulbee has 2,500 majority in White's district; McCree has fully as much as this; Stone carries Oscar Turner clean out of sight and Gen. Wolford goes back with over a 1,000 majority.

There has never been any real doubt about the result of the election in New York since the next day after it occurred. The newspapers had arrangements in every county and by the time the polls were closed their correspondents were in possession of the figures which showed Cleveland an ample plurality. The republicans deserve and will receive the severest execrations of the business men all over the country for their efforts to create doubts and unsettle the commercial condition.

SEN. BUTLER has proved himself the meanest man in the United States. After taking part in the democratic national committee, he not only accepts the nomination of another so-called party but conspires with the democracy's arch enemy, Blaine, to defeat the will of the people. This was supposed all the time and he now admits that his effort was alone to elect Blaine. But the old coward got most ignominiously set down upon.

THE official canvass of the vote in New York began Tuesday and the result announced in 44 counties up to Thursday showed less than a change of 10 from democratic figures. Thursday's papers said that there were rumors in New York city yesterday to the effect that the republicans had given up the fight. Practically this is true, though the party is represented by counsel at the City Hall.

When the New York republican managers found that Cleveland had carried that State, they telegraphed to Mahone: "We need Virginia for our salvation, and perhaps West Virginia. Can't you help us?" Mahone at once telegraphed to his henchmen in certain counties to hold back returns till further orders. Thus do the rascals conspire together to defeat the expressed will of the people.

GEN. LOGAN's saliva seems to have dried up since the election. He has not spit in a man's face for a month, at least the telegraph has not reported to that effect. Having got so badly left for Vice President and lost his show for a return to the Senate, it would seem that he ought to be mad enough to spit fire.

It is claimed in some quarters that the new Congress will hardly elect Carlisle speaker, but that Randall will once more be given the gavel. The New York Herald shows however that the Kentucky revenue reformer has the inside track and will more than probable retain his position.

PATTIE, the sweetest of singers, has at last obtained a divorce from her husband. She has been living with her tenor, Niccolini, for years as his wife and now, after the manner of Blaine, charges that she was secretly married to him long ago. Pattie is far from being as virtuous as she is pretentious.

DANIEL MANNING, the King Bee of New York democrats and Cleveland's most trusted lieutenant, having accomplished his ends, will turn his attention to matrimonial affairs and will next week lead to the altar a bride. He deserves the best and sweetest in the Empire State.

GEN. GRANT not wishing to put himself in record as a supporter of the Plumed Knight, conveniently forgot to register and couldn't vote.

THE cock has been used by Democratic newspapers the morning after elections for forty years. It is essentially a democratic bird, having been first used when the democrats crowded over the defeat of Clay by Polk.

No Doubt About Cleveland Now.
LOUISVILLE, Nov. 13.—The Times has a dispatch saying that at 2 p. m. all but 12 counties of the State have reported the result of the official canvass. They show a net gain of 9 for Cleveland. This does not include New York and Kings counties. The total vote of Brooklyn, as officially announced to-day, gives Cleveland a plurality of 15,762, being a gain of 6 for Cleveland. The count may not be completed this week.

ELECTION NOTES.
—Gov. Gray's official majority in Indiana is 7,206.
—Frank Hurd will contest the election of his opponent.
—The official democratic majority in Florida is 4,144.
—The democrats made a gain of 10,000 votes in Wisconsin.
—The report that Mr. Cleveland is to be married soon is denied.
—St. John ran ahead of Butler in New York about 5,000 votes.
—New Hampshire gave Blaine 1,875 majority and 4,000 plurality.
—Returns from every county in Oregon give Blaine 2,100 majority.
—The official vote of Mississippi gives Cleveland 78,547, Blaine 42,774.
—It is not so bad in California as first reported. She will send one democrat to Congress.
—In Illinois Blaine has 25,116 plurality; Kansas about 60,000 and some 33,000 in Minnesota.
—It is said that $10,000,000 will change hands in New York City alone upon the result of the election.
—Mr. Conkling says "Cleveland is elected beyond all doubt, and his friends need have no apprehension of the result."
—The democrats have elected but one Congressman West of the Rocky Mountains and that one is Henry, of the First California district.
—Blaine's plurality in Pennsylvania is 80,553, but Cleveland sees that and goes 25,000 more in Texas, his plurality there being over 105,000.
—The official vote in Casey county shows a majority of five for the national democratic ticket. For Congress, Wolford, democrat, received 775, and Jones, republican, 743.
—Hon. Roscoe Conkling has consented to act as counsel for the democratic national and State committees in any question that may arise in relation to the pending canvass. It is reported on republican authority that his pay is $10,000.
—Ex-Senator McDonald denounces as false the interview purporting to have been held with him Monday, in which he was made to say the democrats were too premature on claiming a victory, and intimating a weakness of backbone on his part.
—Blaine's net gain in 45 counties in New York over the unofficial count is exactly 8. If there were enough counties he might get there in the course of time, says the Louisville Commercial. There are but 60 counties, though, so he won't get there.
—Carter Harrison is defeated for Governor of Illinois by Gen. Oglesby, (both ex-Kentuckians) but he reduced the majority greatly. He is only defeated by 5,400, while Cleveland loses the State by 18,000. Harrison, who was a great champion of Cleveland's nomination, is likely to be one of the President's favorites.
—Mr. McPherson, Secretary of the republican Congressional committee, says, for the most authentic information he has been able to secure, the next House of representatives will consist of 182 democrats, 141 republicans, 1 Greenbacker (Barnum of Pennsylvania) and one Fusionist (Weaver of Iowa). Democratic majority over all thirty-nine.
—Benjamin F. Butler was born in 1818, and after a long and disreputable career, died politically on the 4th day of November, 1884. His present dilapidated condition reminds us of a remark made by an ancient dame when gazing upon her dead husband. "Old man," said she, "you look bad now, but I'll be darned if you haven't been a hoss in your day!"—(C. J.)
—The Courier Journal suggests the following slate of cabinet officers: Secretary of State Allen G. Thurman, Ohio; Secretary of the Treasury William Dorsheimer, New York; Secretary of War Geo. B. McClellan, New Jersey; Secretary of the Navy Samuel J. Randall, Pennsylvania; Secretary of the Interior Frank Jones, Louisiana; Postmaster General Eppa Hunton, Virginia; Attorney General Joseph E. McDonald, Indiana.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.
—Tom Thumb's estate at Plymouth, Mass., is worth $16,000.
—Typhoid fever is raging in Louisville. There were 16 deaths from it last week.
—The round trip rate from Louisville to the New Orleans Exposition has been fixed at $21.
—Mrs. Garfield, mother of the dead President, is dangerously ill at the home of her daughter-in-law in Cleveland.
—The Board of Trade of Lexington has passed resolutions declaring that the turnpike roads of Fayette county should be free.
—Torrents of rain have fallen in Texas where live stock valued at $1,000,000 were threatened with death by thirst, the ground having been dry for fifteen weeks.
—A nine-ton lump of coal, claimed as the largest ever mined, will represent the coal interests of Birmingham, Ala., at the New Orleans Exhibition.
—The proposition that Adair county take $50,000 in the bonds of the Chesapeake & Nashville Railroad was voted down by a decisive majority on the 4th inst.

—Charles Bunde, an L. & N. brakeman, was run over and killed at Sonora.
—Gen. John Echols has been made First Vice President of the Chesapeake & Nash ville.
—The Court of Appeals has affirmed the sentence of Neal, the condemned Ashland murderer.
—The most ornately decorated house of worship in America is said to be the Greek church at Sitka, Alaska, the interior of which is finished in gold and silver, while the walls are hung with costly pictures.
—At Edinburg, Hidalgo county, Texas, in a row over the counting of the vote, two men were killed outright and several wounded. Hostilities have been temporarily suspended, but are likely to be resumed at any time.
—Mrs. Elizabeth Harris, wife of Judge Kit Harris and sister of Maj. Jas. H. Berry, died at her home in Madison county, Nov. 4, aged 85 years. She was well known throughout the county and was held in high regard by a host of friends.—[Herald.]
—Young Allison managing editor of the Louisville Commercial, telegraphed to his brother-in-law, H. S. Park, who is postmaster at Henderson, as follows: "As goes New York so goes the postoffice. New York has gone to h—l!"—[Owensboro Messenger.]
—H. T. Wilson's barn, containing 40,000 pounds of tobacco, was burned in Bourbon county Tuesday night by an incendiary. The farmers are alarmed, claiming that the negroes are incensed by the success of Cleveland, as they claim that they will have to go back into slavery.
—Just after the celebration and parade in honor of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, at Millersburg, Monday night a fire was discovered in the cellar of Jos. Will Miller. With no fire department, the whole of the best square of the town was destroyed. The fire is thought to be the work of an incendiary. Loss about $75,000.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.
—Mr. Henry M. Cash and Maggie C. Tucker obtained license to marry Wednesday. The young lady is a daughter of Orville Tucker of this county.
—Workmen are engaged in plastering the immense cistern recently dug in the court house yard. It is estimated that it will hold 350 barrels of water.
—Squire E. B. Russell has rented his store room opposite the Central House to Mr. H. J. Rogers, of Charleston, W. V., who will shortly open therein a bakery, confectionery and restaurant.
—Messrs. Wilson and Peville have opened a skating rink in the building on Walnut street just back of the Central House where those fond of the amusement assemble every evening and enjoy themselves.
—Mr. John Morrissey, of Kansas city, a former citizen of this place, is here on a visit to his sister Mrs. John Tracy. Miss Ellen Mereshon, of Richmond, is visiting the family of Capt. J. H. Wilson this county.
—James Shearen, one of the mentried and acquitted several weeks ago on the charge of killing Geo. Rowsey, has with his family gone to Indiana. Ben McGinnis, the other man also tried and acquitted, is somewhere in Mercer county.
—Preparations for the Democratic celebration to-night are under full headway at this writing. The hotels and business houses are decorated with flags and banners and much oratory, fire works and general rejoicing are in the air.
—"It must be that the kingdom's coming," said this year of jubilee."
—Archie Denny was on trial Wednesday for selling whisky to Mr. Price, a high-toned and morality-loving colored gentleman. Price swore he got the whisky and there was considerable testimony going to show that he is a liar of the first water, so the jury disagreed and there is to be another trial to day (Thursday.)
—At Masonheimer's Restaurant, opposite the Court House, Danville, Ky., meals are served at all hours. Game always on hand and in its season. Oysters, fresh fish, and similar delicacies served in all styles and on short notice. Look out for the sign "Woodbine Restaurant" and call when you are hungry. F. W. Masonheimer & Co., Danville, Ky.
—The exhibition of trained animals ect., by the Andrea Novelty company at the Opera House Wednesday night surpassed anything of the kind ever before seen in Danville. The feats performed by the birds seemed to indicate almost human intelligence, while the tricks in magic and juggling by Messrs. Audress and De Camo are certainly first-class. The performances are to be resumed Friday and Saturday nights, none being given Thursday night on account of the celebration. A great many useful presents are given away each night.

Gath says it was Burchard, with his "Rum Romanism and Rebellion!" Halstead says it was Arthur; Whitelaw Reid says it was the Prohibitionist; Carl Schurz says it was his $200 speeches. The fact is, after all, it was the democrats, aided and abetted by the Independents, who did it.—[Indiana Police Times.]
A New York business man says, "It is hard to tell as yet what will be the effect on business. There has been a general stagnation for some months past and it would seem as though any change must be for the better. I don't, however, look for much revival during the present year. It will take some time for things to quiet down."

"I Don't Feel Like Work."
It makes no difference what business you are engaged in, whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick. Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Tonic when you feel "a little out of sorts." It would be money in your pocket. One hour of good, refreshing health is worth half a dozen hours full of languor and pain.

—Charles Bunde, an L. & N. brakeman, was run over and killed at Sonora.
—Gen. John Echols has been made First Vice President of the Chesapeake & Nashville.
—The Court of Appeals has affirmed the sentence of Neal, the condemned Ashland murderer.
—The most ornately decorated house of worship in America is said to be the Greek church at Sitka, Alaska, the interior of which is finished in gold and silver, while the walls are hung with costly pictures.
—At Edinburg, Hidalgo county, Texas, in a row over the counting of the vote, two men were killed outright and several wounded. Hostilities have been temporarily suspended, but are likely to be resumed at any time.
—Mrs. Elizabeth Harris, wife of Judge Kit Harris and sister of Maj. Jas. H. Berry, died at her home in Madison county, Nov. 4, aged 85 years. She was well known throughout the county and was held in high regard by a host of friends.—[Herald.]
—Young Allison managing editor of the Louisville Commercial, telegraphed to his brother-in-law, H. S. Park, who is postmaster at Henderson, as follows: "As goes New York so goes the postoffice. New York has gone to h—l!"—[Owensboro Messenger.]
—H. T. Wilson's barn, containing 40,000 pounds of tobacco, was burned in Bourbon county Tuesday night by an incendiary. The farmers are alarmed, claiming that the negroes are incensed by the success of Cleveland, as they claim that they will have to go back into slavery.
—Just after the celebration and parade in honor of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, at Millersburg, Monday night a fire was discovered in the cellar of Jos. Will Miller. With no fire department, the whole of the best square of the town was destroyed. The fire is thought to be the work of an incendiary. Loss about $75,000.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.
—Mr. Henry M. Cash and Maggie C. Tucker obtained license to marry Wednesday. The young lady is a daughter of Orville Tucker of this county.
—Workmen are engaged in plastering the immense cistern recently dug in the court house yard. It is estimated that it will hold 350 barrels of water.
—Squire E. B. Russell has rented his store room opposite the Central House to Mr. H. J. Rogers, of Charleston, W. V., who will shortly open therein a bakery, confectionery and restaurant.
—Messrs. Wilson and Peville have opened a skating rink in the building on Walnut street just back of the Central House where those fond of the amusement assemble every evening and enjoy themselves.
—Mr. John Morrissey, of Kansas city, a former citizen of this place, is here on a visit to his sister Mrs. John Tracy. Miss Ellen Mereshon, of Richmond, is visiting the family of Capt. J. H. Wilson this county.
—James Shearen, one of the mentried and acquitted several weeks ago on the charge of killing Geo. Rowsey, has with his family gone to Indiana. Ben McGinnis, the other man also tried and acquitted, is somewhere in Mercer county.
—Preparations for the Democratic celebration to-night are under full headway at this writing. The hotels and business houses are decorated with flags and banners and much oratory, fire works and general rejoicing are in the air.
—"It must be that the kingdom's coming," said this year of jubilee."
—Archie Denny was on trial Wednesday for selling whisky to Mr. Price, a high-toned and morality-loving colored gentleman. Price swore he got the whisky and there was considerable testimony going to show that he is a liar of the first water, so the jury disagreed and there is to be another trial to day (Thursday.)
—At Masonheimer's Restaurant, opposite the Court House, Danville, Ky., meals are served at all hours. Game always on hand and in its season. Oysters, fresh fish, and similar delicacies served in all styles and on short notice. Look out for the sign "Woodbine Restaurant" and call when you are hungry. F. W. Masonheimer & Co., Danville, Ky.
—The exhibition of trained animals ect., by the Andrea Novelty company at the Opera House Wednesday night surpassed anything of the kind ever before seen in Danville. The feats performed by the birds seemed to indicate almost human intelligence, while the tricks in magic and juggling by Messrs. Audress and De Camo are certainly first-class. The performances are to be resumed Friday and Saturday nights, none being given Thursday night on account of the celebration. A great many useful presents are given away each night.

Gath says it was Burchard, with his "Rum Romanism and Rebellion!" Halstead says it was Arthur; Whitelaw Reid says it was the Prohibitionist; Carl Schurz says it was his $200 speeches. The fact is, after all, it was the democrats, aided and abetted by the Independents, who did it.—[Indiana Police Times.]
A New York business man says, "It is hard to tell as yet what will be the effect on business. There has been a general stagnation for some months past and it would seem as though any change must be for the better. I don't, however, look for much revival during the present year. It will take some time for things to quiet down."

"I Don't Feel Like Work."
It makes no difference what business you are engaged in, whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick. Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Tonic when you feel "a little out of sorts." It would be money in your pocket. One hour of good, refreshing health is worth half a dozen hours full of languor and pain.

—Charles Bunde, an L. & N. brakeman, was run over and killed at Sonora.
—Gen. John Echols has been made First Vice President of the Chesapeake & Nashville.
—The Court of Appeals has affirmed the sentence of Neal, the condemned Ashland murderer.
—The most ornately decorated house of worship in America is said to be the Greek church at Sitka, Alaska, the interior of which is finished in gold and silver, while the walls are hung with costly pictures.
—At Edinburg, Hidalgo county, Texas, in a row over the counting of the vote, two men were killed outright and several wounded. Hostilities have been temporarily suspended, but are likely to be resumed at any time.
—Mrs. Elizabeth Harris, wife of Judge Kit Harris and sister of Maj. Jas. H. Berry, died at her home in Madison county, Nov. 4, aged 85 years. She was well known throughout the county and was held in high regard by a host of friends.—[Herald.]
—Young Allison managing editor of the Louisville Commercial, telegraphed to his brother-in-law, H. S. Park, who is postmaster at Henderson, as follows: "As goes New York so goes the postoffice. New York has gone to h—l!"—[Owensboro Messenger.]
—H. T. Wilson's barn, containing 40,000 pounds of tobacco, was burned in Bourbon county Tuesday night by an incendiary. The farmers are alarmed, claiming that the negroes are incensed by the success of Cleveland, as they claim that they will have to go back into slavery.
—Just after the celebration and parade in honor of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, at Millersburg, Monday night a fire was discovered in the cellar of Jos. Will Miller. With no fire department, the whole of the best square of the town was destroyed. The fire is thought to be the work of an incendiary. Loss about $75,000.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.
—Mr. Henry M. Cash and Maggie C. Tucker obtained license to marry Wednesday. The young lady is a daughter of Orville Tucker of this county.
—Workmen are engaged in plastering the immense cistern recently dug in the court house yard. It is estimated that it will hold 350 barrels of water.
—Squire E. B. Russell has rented his store room opposite the Central House to Mr. H. J. Rogers, of Charleston, W. V., who will shortly open therein a bakery, confectionery and restaurant.
—Messrs. Wilson and Peville have opened a skating rink in the building on Walnut street just back of the Central House where those fond of the amusement assemble every evening and enjoy themselves.
—Mr. John Morrissey, of Kansas city, a former citizen of this place, is here on a visit to his sister Mrs. John Tracy. Miss Ellen Mereshon, of Richmond, is visiting the family of Capt. J. H. Wilson this county.
—James Shearen, one of the mentried and acquitted several weeks ago on the charge of killing Geo. Rowsey, has with his family gone to Indiana. Ben McGinnis, the other man also tried and acquitted, is somewhere in Mercer county.
—Preparations for the Democratic celebration to-night are under full headway at this writing. The hotels and business houses are decorated with flags and banners and much oratory, fire works and general rejoicing are in the air.
—"It must be that the kingdom's coming," said this year of jubilee."
—Archie Denny was on trial Wednesday for selling whisky to Mr. Price, a high-toned and morality-loving colored gentleman. Price swore he got the whisky and there was considerable testimony going to show that he is a liar of the first water, so the jury disagreed and there is to be another trial to day (Thursday.)
—At Masonheimer's Restaurant, opposite the Court House, Danville, Ky., meals are served at all hours. Game always on hand and in its season. Oysters, fresh fish, and similar delicacies served in all styles and on short notice. Look out for the sign "Woodbine Restaurant" and call when you are hungry. F. W. Masonheimer & Co., Danville, Ky.
—The exhibition of trained animals ect., by the Andrea Novelty company at the Opera House Wednesday night surpassed anything of the kind ever before seen in Danville. The feats performed by the birds seemed to indicate almost human intelligence, while the tricks in magic and juggling by Messrs. Audress and De Camo are certainly first-class. The performances are to be resumed Friday and Saturday nights, none being given Thursday night on account of the celebration. A great many useful presents are given away each night.

Gath says it was Burchard, with his "Rum Romanism and Rebellion!" Halstead says it was Arthur; Whitelaw Reid says it was the Prohibitionist; Carl Schurz says it was his $200 speeches. The fact is, after all, it was the democrats, aided and abetted by the Independents, who did it.—[Indiana Police Times.]
A New York business man says, "It is hard to tell as yet what will be the effect on business. There has been a general stagnation for some months past and it would seem as though any change must be for the better. I don't, however, look for much revival during the present year. It will take some time for things to quiet down."

"I Don't Feel Like Work."
It makes no difference what business you are engaged in, whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick. Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Tonic when you feel "a little out of sorts." It would be money in your pocket. One hour of good, refreshing health is worth half a dozen hours full of languor and pain.

—Charles Bunde, an L. & N. brakeman, was run over and killed at Sonora.
—Gen. John Echols has been made First Vice President of the Chesapeake & Nashville.
—The Court of Appeals has affirmed the sentence of Neal, the condemned Ashland murderer.
—The most ornately decorated house of worship in America is said to be the Greek church at Sitka, Alaska, the interior of which is finished in gold and silver, while the walls are hung with costly pictures.
—At Edinburg, Hidalgo county, Texas, in a row over the counting of the vote, two men were killed outright and several wounded. Hostilities have been temporarily suspended, but are likely to be resumed at any time.
—Mrs. Elizabeth Harris, wife of Judge Kit Harris and sister of Maj. Jas. H. Berry, died at her home in Madison county, Nov. 4, aged 85 years. She was well known throughout the county and was held in high regard by a host of friends.—[Herald.]
—Young Allison managing editor of the Louisville Commercial, telegraphed to his brother-in-law, H. S. Park, who is postmaster at Henderson, as follows: "As goes New York so goes the postoffice. New York has gone to h—l!"—[Owensboro Messenger.]
—H. T. Wilson's barn, containing 40,000 pounds of tobacco, was burned in Bourbon county Tuesday night by an incendiary. The farmers are alarmed, claiming that the negroes are incensed by the success of Cleveland, as they claim that they will have to go back into slavery.
—Just after the celebration and parade in honor of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, at Millersburg, Monday night a fire was discovered in the cellar of Jos. Will Miller. With no fire department, the whole of the best square of the town was destroyed. The fire is thought to be the work of an incendiary. Loss about $75,000.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.
—Mr. Henry M. Cash and Maggie C. Tucker obtained license to marry Wednesday. The young lady is a daughter of Orville Tucker of this county.
—Workmen are engaged in plastering the immense cistern recently dug in the court house yard. It is estimated that it will hold 350 barrels of water.
—Squire E. B. Russell has rented his store room opposite the Central House to Mr. H. J. Rogers, of Charleston, W. V., who will shortly open therein a bakery, confectionery and restaurant.
—Messrs. Wilson and Peville have opened a skating rink in the building on Walnut street just back of the Central House where those fond of the amusement assemble every evening and enjoy themselves.
—Mr. John Morrissey, of Kansas city, a former citizen of this place, is here on a visit to his sister Mrs. John Tracy. Miss Ellen Mereshon, of Richmond, is visiting the family of Capt. J. H. Wilson this county.
—James Shearen, one of the mentried and acquitted several weeks ago on the charge of killing Geo. Rowsey, has with his family gone to Indiana. Ben McGinnis, the other man also tried and acquitted, is somewhere in Mercer county.
—Preparations for the Democratic celebration to-night are under full headway at this writing. The hotels and business houses are decorated with flags and banners and much oratory, fire works and general rejoicing are in the air.
—"It must be that the kingdom's coming," said this year of jubilee."
—Archie Denny was on trial Wednesday for selling whisky to Mr. Price, a high-toned and morality-loving colored gentleman. Price swore he got the whisky and there was considerable testimony going to show that he is a liar of the first water, so the jury disagreed and there is to be another trial to day (Thursday.)
—At Masonheimer's Restaurant, opposite the Court House, Danville, Ky., meals are served at all hours. Game always on hand and in its season. Oysters, fresh fish, and similar delicacies served in all styles and on short notice. Look out for the sign "Woodbine Restaurant" and call when you are hungry. F. W. Masonheimer & Co., Danville, Ky.
—The exhibition of trained animals ect., by the Andrea Novelty company at the Opera House Wednesday night surpassed anything of the kind ever before seen in Danville. The feats performed by the birds seemed to indicate almost human intelligence, while the tricks in magic and juggling by Messrs. Audress and De Camo are certainly first-class. The performances are to be resumed Friday and Saturday nights, none being given Thursday night on account of the celebration. A great many useful presents are given away each night.

Gath says it was Burchard, with his "Rum Romanism and Rebellion!" Halstead says it was Arthur; Whitelaw Reid says it was the Prohibitionist; Carl Schurz says it was his $200 speeches. The fact is, after all, it was the democrats, aided and abetted by the Independents, who did it.—[Indiana Police Times.]
A New York business man says, "It is hard to tell as yet what will be the effect on business. There has been a general stagnation for some months past and it would seem as though any change must be for the better. I don't, however, look for much revival during the present year. It will take some time for things to quiet down."

"I Don't Feel Like Work."
It makes no difference what business you are engaged in, whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick. Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Tonic when you feel "a little out of sorts." It would be money in your pocket. One hour of good, refreshing health is worth half a dozen hours full of languor and pain.

—Charles Bunde, an L. & N. brakeman, was run over and killed at Sonora.
—Gen. John Echols has been made First Vice President of the Chesapeake & Nashville.
—The Court of Appeals has affirmed the sentence of Neal, the condemned Ashland murderer.
—The most ornately decorated house of worship in America is said to be the Greek church at Sitka, Alaska, the interior of which is finished in gold and silver, while the walls are hung with costly pictures.
—At Edinburg, Hidalgo county, Texas, in a row over the counting of the vote, two men were killed outright and several wounded. Hostilities have been temporarily suspended, but are likely to be resumed at any time.
—Mrs. Elizabeth Harris, wife of Judge Kit Harris and sister of Maj. Jas. H. Berry, died at her home in Madison county, Nov. 4, aged 85 years. She was well known throughout the county and was held in high regard by a host of friends.—[Herald.]
—Young Allison managing editor of the Louisville Commercial, telegraphed to his brother-in-law, H. S. Park, who is postmaster at Henderson, as follows: "As goes New York so goes the postoffice. New York has gone to h—l!"—[Owensboro Messenger.]
—H. T. Wilson's barn, containing 40,000 pounds of tobacco, was burned in Bourbon county Tuesday night by an incendiary. The farmers are alarmed, claiming that the negroes are incensed by the success of Cleveland, as they claim that they will have to go back into slavery.
—Just after the celebration and parade in honor of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, at Millersburg, Monday night a fire was discovered in the cellar of Jos. Will Miller. With no fire department, the whole of the best square of the town was destroyed. The fire is thought to be the work of an incendiary. Loss about $75,000.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.
—Mr. Henry M. Cash and Maggie C. Tucker obtained license to marry Wednesday. The young lady is a daughter of Orville Tucker of this county.
—Workmen are engaged in plastering the immense cistern recently dug in the court house yard. It is estimated that it will hold 350 barrels of water.
—Squire E. B. Russell has rented his store room opposite the Central House to Mr. H. J. Rogers, of Charleston, W. V., who will shortly open therein a bakery, confectionery and restaurant.
—Messrs. Wilson and Peville have opened a skating rink in the building on Walnut street just back of the Central House where those fond of the amusement assemble every evening and enjoy themselves.
—Mr. John Morrissey, of Kansas city, a former citizen of this place, is here on a visit to his sister Mrs. John Tracy. Miss Ellen Mereshon, of Richmond, is visiting the family of Capt. J. H. Wilson this county.
—James Shearen, one of the mentried and acquitted several weeks ago on the charge of killing Geo. Rowsey, has with his family gone to Indiana. Ben McGinnis, the other man also tried and acquitted, is somewhere in Mercer county.
—Preparations for the Democratic celebration to-night are under full headway at this writing. The hotels and business houses are decorated with flags and banners and much oratory, fire works and general rejoicing are in the air.
—"It must be that the kingdom's coming," said this year of jubilee."
—Archie Denny was on trial Wednesday for selling whisky to Mr. Price, a high-toned and morality-loving colored gentleman. Price swore he got the whisky and there was considerable testimony going to show that he is a liar of the first water, so the jury disagreed and there is to be another trial to day (Thursday.)
—At Masonheimer's Restaurant, opposite the Court House, Danville, Ky., meals are served at all hours. Game always on hand and in its season. Oysters, fresh fish, and similar delicacies served in all styles and on short notice. Look out for the sign "Woodbine Restaurant" and call when you are hungry. F. W. Masonheimer & Co., Danville, Ky.
—The exhibition of trained animals ect., by the Andrea Novelty company at the Opera House Wednesday night surpassed anything of the kind ever before seen in Danville. The feats performed by the birds seemed to indicate almost human intelligence, while the tricks in magic and juggling by Messrs. Audress and De Camo are certainly first-class. The performances are to be resumed Friday and Saturday nights, none being given Thursday night on account of the celebration. A great many useful presents are given away each night.

Gath says it was Burchard, with his "Rum Romanism and Rebellion!" Halstead says it was Arthur; Whitelaw Reid says it was the Prohibitionist; Carl Schurz says it was his $200 speeches. The fact is, after all, it was the democrats, aided and abetted by the Independents, who did it.—[Indiana Police Times.]
A New York business man says, "It is hard to tell as yet what will be the effect on business. There has been a general stagnation for some months past and it would seem as though any change must be for the better. I don't, however, look for much revival during the present year. It will take some time for things to quiet down."

"I Don't Feel Like Work."
It makes no difference what business you are engaged in, whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick. Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Tonic when you feel "a little out of sorts." It would be money in your pocket. One hour of good, refreshing health is worth half a dozen hours full of languor and pain.

—Charles Bunde, an L. & N. brakeman, was run over and killed at Sonora.
—Gen. John Echols has been made First Vice President of the Chesapeake & Nashville.
—The Court of Appeals has affirmed the sentence of Neal, the condemned Ashland murderer.
—The most ornately decorated house of worship in America is said to be the Greek church at Sitka, Alaska, the interior of which is finished in gold and silver, while the walls are hung with costly pictures.
—At Edinburg, Hidalgo county, Texas, in a row over the counting of the vote, two men were killed outright and several wounded. Hostilities have been temporarily suspended, but are likely to be resumed at any time.
—Mrs. Elizabeth Harris, wife of Judge Kit Harris and sister of Maj. Jas. H. Berry, died at her home in Madison county, Nov. 4, aged 85 years. She was well known throughout the county and was held in high regard by a host of friends.—[Herald.]
—Young Allison managing editor of the Louisville Commercial, telegraphed to his brother-in-law, H. S. Park, who is postmaster at Henderson, as follows: "As goes New York so goes the postoffice. New York has gone to h—l!"—[Owensboro Messenger.]
—H. T. Wilson's barn, containing 40,000 pounds of tobacco, was burned in Bourbon county Tuesday night by an incendiary. The farmers are alarmed, claiming that the negroes are incensed by the success of Cleveland, as they claim that they will have to go back into slavery.
—Just after the celebration and parade in honor of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, at Millersburg, Monday night a fire was discovered in the cellar of Jos. Will Miller. With no fire department, the whole of the best square of the town was destroyed. The fire is thought to be the work of an incendiary. Loss about $75,000.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.
—Mr. Henry M. Cash and Maggie C. Tucker obtained license to marry Wednesday. The young lady is a daughter of Orville Tucker of this county.
—Workmen are engaged in plastering the immense cistern recently dug in the court house yard. It is estimated that it will hold 350 barrels of water.
—Squire E. B. Russell has rented his store room opposite the Central House to Mr. H. J. Rogers, of Charleston, W. V., who will shortly open therein a bakery, confectionery and restaurant.
—Messrs. Wilson and Peville have opened a skating rink in the building on Walnut street just back of the Central House where those fond of the amusement assemble every evening and enjoy themselves.
—Mr. John Morrissey, of Kansas city, a former citizen of this place, is here on a visit to his sister Mrs. John Tracy. Miss Ellen Mereshon, of Richmond, is visiting the family of Capt. J. H. Wilson this county.
—James Shearen, one of the mentried and acquitted several weeks ago on the charge of killing Geo. Rowsey, has with his family gone to Indiana. Ben McGinnis, the other man also tried and acquitted, is somewhere in Mercer county.
—Preparations for the Democratic celebration to-night are under full headway at this writing. The hotels and business houses are decorated with flags and banners and much oratory, fire works and general rejoicing are in the air.
—"It must be that the kingdom's coming," said this year of jubilee."
—Archie Denny was on trial Wednesday for selling whisky to Mr. Price, a high-toned and morality-loving colored gentleman. Price swore he got the whisky and there was considerable testimony going to show that he is a liar of the first water, so the jury disagreed and there is to be another trial to day (Thursday.)
—At Masonheimer's Restaurant, opposite the Court House, Danville, Ky., meals are served at all hours. Game always on hand and in its season. Oysters, fresh fish, and similar delicacies served in all styles and on short notice. Look out for the sign "Woodbine Restaurant" and call when you are hungry. F. W. Masonheimer & Co., Danville, Ky.
—The exhibition of trained animals ect., by the Andrea Novelty company at the Opera House Wednesday night surpassed anything of the kind ever before seen in Danville. The feats performed by the birds seemed to indicate almost human intelligence, while the tricks in magic and juggling by Messrs. Audress and De Camo are certainly first-class. The performances are to be resumed Friday and Saturday nights, none being given Thursday night on account of the celebration. A great many useful presents are given away each night.

Gath says it was Burchard, with his "Rum Romanism and Rebellion!" Halstead says it was Arthur; Whitelaw Reid says it was the Prohibitionist; Carl Schurz says it was his $200 speeches. The fact is, after all, it was the democrats, aided and abetted by the Independents, who did it.—[Indiana Police Times.]
A New York business man says, "It is hard to tell as yet what will be the effect on business. There has been a general stagnation for some months past and it would seem as though any change must be for the better. I don't, however, look for much revival during the present year. It will take some time for things to quiet down."

"I Don't Feel Like Work."
It makes no difference what business you are engaged in, whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick. Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Tonic when you feel "a little out of sorts." It would be money in your pocket. One hour of good, refreshing health is worth half a dozen hours full of languor and pain.

—Charles Bunde, an L. & N. brakeman, was run over and killed at Sonora.
—Gen. John Echols has been made First Vice President of the Chesapeake & Nashville.
—The Court of Appeals has affirmed the sentence of Neal, the condemned Ashland murderer.
—The most ornately decorated house of worship in America is said to be the Greek church at Sitka, Alaska, the interior of which is finished in gold and silver, while the walls are hung with costly pictures.
—At Edinburg, Hidalgo county, Texas, in a row over the counting of the vote, two men were killed outright and several wounded. Hostilities have been temporarily suspended, but are likely to be resumed at any time.
—Mrs. Elizabeth Harris, wife of Judge Kit Harris and sister of Maj. Jas. H. Berry, died at her home in Madison county, Nov. 4, aged 85 years. She was well known throughout the county and was held in high regard by a host of friends.—[Herald.]
—Young Allison managing editor of the Louisville Commercial, telegraphed to his brother-in-law, H. S. Park, who is postmaster at Henderson, as follows: "As goes New York so goes the postoffice. New York has gone to h—l!"—[Owensboro Messenger.]
—H. T. Wilson's barn, containing 40,000 pounds